TELEGRAPHIC

[Evening Despatches to the Times.]

Later from New Orleans—Port Hudson Invested—Success of the French Confirmed—Forcible Suppression of the Chicago Times by the Military—Later from Europe—Reports from Vicksburg—General Blair's Division Gone to the Rear.

CHICAGO, 2d

The proprietors of the Times were notified tonight by Capt Putnam, commanding at Camp Douglas, that if they attempted to issue their paper for to-morrow morning he would in accordance with a telegraphic order from General Ammen, take military possession of the office

Judge Drummond of the U S court was immediately applied to for a writ enjoining Capt Putnam from any interference with the Times office Up to this hour, midnight, the Judge has not given a decision It is probable, however, that he will grant the writ

A ray of reassurance to the military, should they attempt to carry out Gen Ammen's order, is observable

NEW YORK, 8d

By the steamer Geo Cromwell, which arrived from New Orleans at 3 a m, we have the following.

Seventy five prisons a arrived at New Orleans on the 29th from Baton Rouge, among whom is ex-Gov Robert Wickliffe, who was captured near Port Hudson

The fight on the Bayou Sara road of the 21st, was fiercely contested, but the rebels were badly whipped at every point

The garrison at Port Hudson is estimated at about 10,000, scantily supplied with provisions

NEW YORK, 2d

The Herald has private advices from Mexico confirming the capture of Puebla It also states that during the nights of the 7th and 8th of May, Comonfort, while marching to the assistance of Ortega, was surprised by the French and lost 8 guns, 20 artillery wagons, 2300 mules, and 2500 men taken prisoners

Between April 23d and May 18th one steamer, the Augusta, and nine schooners have been captured off Mobile

NEW YORK, 3d

Steamer Columbia, from New Orleans on the morning of the 28th, has arrived

The Era of that date says We learn from an authentic source that our army before Port Hudson is in a satisfactory position, and everything promises fair for an triumphant and successful close of the campaign against that rebel strong hold

Shortly after twelve o'clock last night Judge Drummond issued a writ directing the military authorities to take no further steps or measures to carry into effect the order of Major General Burnside for the suppression of the Chicago Times, until the application for a permanent writ of injunction could be heard in open Court to-day

At half past three o'clock this morning after nearly the whole edition of the Chicago Times had been worked off, a file of federal soldiers broke into the office and took possession of the establishment

The soldiers remained in possession of the establishment for some time and then left, after giving notice that if any attempt was made to publish another paper the military would take permanent possession of the office

NEW YORK, 3d

The steamship Persia, from Liverpool May 23d, via Queenstown 26th, arrived at 8 o'clock this morning

It is announced that the cargoes of the ships Nora, Louisa Hatch, and Chas Hill bound from England to the East Indies and destroyed by the Alabama were shipper by and consigned to British subjects The Government is called upon to, and it is thought will interfere in the matter

At a meeting of the British and foreign anti-slavery society, it was stated the Brougham declined to preside on the ground that such a course was inconsistent with neutrality, which every one ought to observe in the American contest

The following letter was posted on 'change

PERNAMBUCO, May 1, 1863

Gentlemen I write to inform you that ships Nora and Charles Hill being in company on the 25th of March, lat 12 S, lon 26 W, were captured by the Alabama, and both burned on the 27th of March. We were sold as prisoners for 21 days on board the Alabama, and then landed at Fernando De Noronha, where we remain and five days, half starved—one hundred persons in all—then sailed in a schooner of 50 tons for this port, where we arrived on the 26th of April, more dead than alive We should not get ready to come by this steamer, but shall sail in four days for Liverpool direct, in the English barkantine Edith Respectfully yours,
CHARLES E ADAMS,
Master of Ship Nora
To Messrs E J Crocker & Co., Liverpool

The cargoes in both vessels were British property Both vessels were American, and sailed by the same title from the Mersey The shippers had taken every precaution against danger from the Alabama They furnished the captain with certificates of ownership by the Mayor and other authorities, and it is now thought that our government will take instant action in the business This deed of the Alabama may have consequences not thought of by Capt Semmes

The Richmond Examiner of the 26th ult, says

Last night's trains from Fredericksburg bring the rumor that Hooker was preparing to leave the Rappahannock and establish a new base, somewhere on the York Peninsula What the indications on the part of the enemy were that gave rise to this report, we were unable to ascertain

The monotonous quiet of our army was agreeably broken off on Wednesday by a review and dress parade in honor of the arrival of General Ewell of the 2d division, on the plain Southeast of Hamilton's crossing The Yankees becoming aware that something unusual was going on, sent up their balloons to reconnoitre, but the long roll, fired signal guns, and made other counter demonstrations.

PHILADELPHIA, 3d.

The Bulletin has the following special despatch—

CINCINNATI, May 3d.

A despatch to the Gazette from Cairo gives the following information, which was obtained from a Federal officer, who has arrived from Vicksburg:

The base of the Federal lines extend from right to left on the Mississippi, from the Yazoo to the lower part of Vicksburg, over six miles In the rear of the rebels, our lines come up to the rebel lines East of the town we hold undisputed possession of everything between the Black River bridge, and 6th test of the hills in the rear of the rebel army

At last accounts General Frank Blair's division had started for the Big Black River Bridge His destination was unknown.

It was believed that the gunboat Cincinnati could be raised

Deserters report that the rebel losses were very heavy on the 22d ult

The cessation of hostilities on the 21st ult, was to allow the women and children to leave the city

A despatch from Somerset, Ky, says that 20 refugees had come in from East Tennessee. There are but few rebel troops in Knoxville Many had passed through the city, going west

VILLAINOUS TREATMENT Lieut Wm E Stevens, of Co E, 5th Maine regiment, in a letter to the Portland Courier, dated Camp Parole, Annapolis, May 20, after speaking of the late battles on the Rappahannock, and capture of a large number of our officers and soldiers, thus refers to the treatment received from the rebels

"The treatment we received as prisoners of war, so far as the rebel officers were concerned, with one exception, was most villainous But the private soldiers, especially of Wilcox's Alabama brigade, did everything in their power to alleviate our condition They would share their scant rations with us By the rebel officers we were divested of blankets, coats, knapsacks, belts, and were compelled to sleep out in the rain and cold A cupful of flour and a small piece of rotten bacon, was allowed us per day, until we reached Richmond At Richmond, the populace turned out to see us as we marched to prison The women stared and grinned, the home guards insulted us without stint One would think the people of Richmond never saw a Yank' before At the Libby prison we got soft bread and bacon, but only half rations—We were also allowed to buy eggs at $4,00 per dozen and potatoes $4,00 per bushel, other things in proportion On the 13th we were paroled, and on the 14th 2 000 men and 90 officers left the precincts of Libby Prison with glad hearts, although compelled to walk to City Point, via Petersburg, a distance of 32 miles This march was the hardest I had ever experienced A number died on the road from the effects of it It was especially severe on captive men The conduct of the rebel officers in charge was most brutal, and the people of Petersburg were even more abusive than those at Richmond A harvest of vengeance will yet be gathered in these two cities, and the officers of the 41st Virginia battalion will have cause to regret their inhuman treatment Great claims of vengeance have been registered against them It is doubtful if there is one officer in the squad that left Richmond on the 14th for City Point, who does not feel burning in his heart a desire to reciprocate rebel favors

Speaking for myself, one short sojourn in Dixie has added much to my hatred and disgust of rebels and rebellion, and taught me the better to appreciate our own glorious Government and its starry emblem My confidence, too, in our final triumph is great than ever A few more victories like Chancellorsville would ruin them And if victory gives them so quinine, no relief, what would be the effect of a defeat?"

CARICATURE There is a species of humor, peculiarly American, which consists in grotesque hyperbole, the exaggeration of some fact which expresses it better than a faithful portrait would do Some people like the snake and kill it when they wish to show it to us, but the lively Yankee, hyperbolizes about it by the tail as it passes, and after has it into ludicrous proportions, as scores in pantomime to the tails of those famous darting dragons which so astonish and delight the children

Instances of this wild and extravagant humor are as common as proverbs Everybody has heard of the weather which was so cold that the mercury went out of sight, and which, no doubt would have been a good deal colder if the thermometer had been long enough A similar exaggeration was that of a young man who took cologne on a morning so cold that the mercury ran right down in his boots And speaking of boots reminds us of the stage driver who wore so large ones that he had to use the forks of the road as a boot jack

The following passages are illustrations The man out west whose legs are so long that he has to go down cellar to tie his shoes The man who is so large that he has to go out doors to turn over. The man who snored so loud that he had to sleep over in the next street to keep from waking himself The man whose nose is so long that he has to step forward three paces to reach the end of it The man who was so large and heavy that his shadow killed a little boy when it fell on him The man who was so fat that his shadow left a greasy trail along the road as he walked along; and the man who was so thin that he did not cast any shadow at all And among these deserves to rank the horse that ran so fast around chasing that the speculators could only see his own tail just before him

A fireman once related an adventure in which he found himself in a rich saloon, surrounded by wealth and a fine company

'I didn't know myself until I felt in my pockets and found 'em empty'

Some one inferred that he was customarily short of funds

'That's so' said he, 'if steamboats were selling for two cents apiece I haven't money enough to buy a gangway plank.'

We once heard a person tell of a fright he had from a big dog.

'I los flesh,' said he, 'at the rate of ten pounds a minute, till the owner came and called him off'

Along with this we may place the story of the man who, in consequence of a fright, ran so fast and so far, that when he stopped it was more than twenty minutes before his shadow came up with him He was privately watched by the man whose dickey was so high that he had to climb a fence to see over it.

THE RIGHTS OF THE PEOPLE Madison, in one of the Federalist papers, gave utterance to the following sentiment, which is particularly applicable to the "Rights of the People" shriekers of the present time

The vigor of government is essential to the security of liberty; in the contemplation of a sound and well informed judgment their interests can never be separated; and a dangerous ambition more often lurks behind the specious mask of zeal for the rights of the people than under the forbidding appearance of zeal for the firmness and efficiency of the government.

A monster Union Convention is to be held at Concord, N. H., on the 17th inst., at which Gen. B F Butler, Hon. John Cochrane, Hon. Montgomery Blair, Gen. J. C. Fremont, Hon James T. Brady and Hon. Daniel S. Dickinson are announced to speak.

WILL GRANT TAKE VICKSBURG? There seems to be no doubt, even in the minds of the rebels' that Gen Grant will ultimately take Vicksburg. Those on the spot seem very certain that this must be the result of the siege. The correspondent of the St Louis Democrat, dating his letter at Young's Point on the 23d ult, says

As I write here in the cool of early morning, the sound of our mortars slowly booming on the other side of the stream reminds me that another day of siege has begun for the heedsome city over the way It is now a city girt with fire, our gunboats in front, our army, inspired by recent successes, coiled in the rear

Will Grant take Vicksburg? Decidedly yes The dangers of this superb, romantic campaign are past While marching from Grand Gulf to Big Black, by the way of Jackson and Bolton, its progress was brilliant but perilous A single mistake or disaster might have overwhelmed its army with remediless ruin. But the mistake was not made, the disaster did not come. At Port Gibson, at Raymond, at Jackson, at Champion's Hill, (Midway drills, or Baker's Creek, the battle has three names,) and at Big Black Bridge, our brave veterans of the West drove the rebels before them like sheep Johnston retreated northward from Jackson, and has not yet recovered he Vicksburg insurgents Pemberton went out from Vicksburg to capture Grant with sixty pieces of artillery—he fled back with fifteen

Now how can Vicksburg fail to fall? The ground in the rear of the town is a vast plateau, cut by a thousand ravines, a great amount of it the hills On a half circle of lands, about two miles from the heart of the town, are the rebel defences On an exterior half circle of hills, just as high, lies our army, its artillery occupying just as commanding positions as that of the enemy, while from the Yazoo we can get all the supplies we need

But some say that Johnston is coming up in our rear He may come now if he chooses He must come over those same hills, through those same ravines of which I have spoken, and he will find them the gates of death

An unknown 'small and smooth shaved man, supposed to be about thirty years old,' and who has been known to register his name at a hotel as George Mortimer, was arrested at Wesley, May 28, for having robbed the mail on the Air Line route the night previous About $7000 in checks, &c, were found upon him — He was suspected and arrested on the Burnside system, by passengers and conductors at Wesley, without due formal of law The case was a plausible one, as circumstances plainly indicated the culprit—Alexander Union

Did not "circumstances indicate the culprit" when Burnside arrested Vallandigham for instigating his soldiers to desert?

Paper is selling in Richmond at one hundred dollars a ream for foolscap, and seventy-five dollars for letter paper The price of the Richmond Examiner is two dollars and forty cents a month

THE KEARNEY MEDALS OF HONOR List of Name, England Recipients The following soldiers belonging to New England regiments, received each a Kearney Decorative, Medal from the hands of General Sickles, who was deputed to present them by General Birney A general order was issued by General Birney on the 16th ultimo, recounting the deeds and merits of the division under its several leaders, the Hemtselman, Kearney and himself, expressing confidence in their gallantry hereafter and concluding as follows

"Many deserving soldiers may have escaped the notice of their commanding officers, but in the selection after the next battle they will doubtless receive honorable distinction

This cross is the honor of our old leader, and the wearers of it will always remember his high standard of a true and brave soldier, and will never disgrace it."

RHODE ISLAND FIRST ARTILLERY

William Turpey, John Mc Ades, Martin Harvey, Private Albert N Caldwell all of Battery E, 1st Rhode Island Artillery

The Kearney Crosses are of bronze, made in the form of a Maltese cross, and intended to be fastened to the coat with a bar and pin The presentation is an act of private munificence, Mr George Bullock, of Philadelphia, furnishing the medals at his own cost

The first two persons invested with these honorable badges were Mary, the good and brave vivandiere of 11th Pennsylvania, and Mrs. Anna Etheridge, formerly of the 2d Michigan but now attached to Gen Haymen's staff The ceremony of presentation was very impressive. As soon as the several brigades had settled into partial quiet, the colonels stepped to the front of their commands, and, calling aloud the name of the party to be honored, ordered him to step forward four paces to the front — Those selected were formed in line, marched to the center of the square and faced to the front Major General Sickles then rode to the front, stated to them the object of the gathering, recapitulated the doings of the Kearney division, and said that Birney was his fit successor — After the speech had been concluded, the medals were brought forward delivered into the hands of the commanders, and by them at once distributed to the men

Don't Put Your Hand to the Plow and Turn Back.

It is said by those who have and are opposing the war, that should we succeed in conquering the South, we are no nearer the goal than before because a hatred growing out of the war has sprung up, which can never be effaced—so that while we have conquered them externally, there will be a never dying loathing and hatred toward us which can never be overcome—there will be no real union—that our condition toward each other will resemble an ill-assorted marriage, where all is unharmony and disgust, and divorce or death would be preferable to this painful and unhappy union The answer to that by those favoring the war is of this reasoning—that it is true they are now possessed of the most bitter, bitter hatred, which will naturally last during their success in defending their territory, but after they are conquered, true to their human nature, they will look around to find some one to blame for all their mortification and woes, their losses of everything, property, lives and all, and those men who have been averse to the war of secession, will be quick to charge the defeated leaders as being the instruments of their misery—that had it not been for these wretched advisers of the people, who urged and forced upon them secession, that they—the South—would have been spared the cup of humiliation which they have drank to the dregs—and their wrath will wax stronger and strong against the Southern leaders, favored by the Union men of the South, until the hatred toward the North is consumed in this holocaust, kindled and burning toward their former leaders The fear of this answer proving fallacious, is the well known short-lived character of parties. They are constantly changing, like a wheel turning round—what is uppermost to-day is lowermost to-morrow—and those then who are the leaders of this rebellion, are the smartest men of the South. Now, can you keep such men under for any length of time, and if not, will they hesitate to revive all the malignant feeling that has been quieted under the Union dynasty? Seizing upon all the questions which shall arise, and producing with every occasion which shall offer as an apple of discord, till the crop shall be so abundant as will make the veriest devil of a Yankee or Shoat or their ilk, yet, with delight.

If the above reasoning is correct, we are safe in the assertion that the war is a bad condition—were it would seem we cannot go back nor forward without meeting with untold miseries, but it seems to us there is yet hope—that a cure can be effected for all our difficulties and upon the homeopathic principle, viz 'what produced the disease should be administered to abolish it. Now our only safety would seem to lie in educating the negro to the use of arms, thus introducing a third party into this controversy, who will and shall be able by the education of arms, to put themselves upon a level with those whites of the South that are so dissatisfied with our government and our people of the North, who shall say, 'we are natives of the South, and we think well of the United States Government and the people who are endeavoring to uphold it, and we have the same right to guard and protect it than you have to attempt to break it down; and more especially, while we lived under this government and as slaves, peacefully, with you as masters, now that we have become equals in the eye of the law, you must take your turn and be subservient to the laws as we were when you held us as slaves We have become strong now, we have learned to fight and to obtain and keep our liberties, and you must obey the laws for the future as we have in the past."

A letter from Beaufort S C, informs us that Lieutenant Colonel R F Campbell of the 11th Maine Regiment, has resigned his commission and returned to his home at Cherryfield The following testimonial is forwarded for publication

Camp Butler, 11th Maine Vols,
Beaufort S C, May 28th

Not because it is "fitting," not because it is proper, not because it is courtesy, do we give you, as you leave us, this slight testimonial of our regard It is no part of our duty to extol and flatter in the usual terms in Are we rejoice to tell you, while regretting your departure, that in return for your uniform courtesy to us, in respect for your bravery and self possession on time of danger, in gratitude for your faithfulness to our interests during our connection of more than eighteen months, that we mourn the loss of a brave and able officer and a true gentleman

You have our best wishes for the future, as you have had them in the past As you have move, forgotten us, so we will never forget you As we are proud of the name you have already acquired, so we shall rejoice in your future success.

That these few words may remind you of our love and our respect, is the wish of us all

ACCIDENT A man named Manuel Sullivan had the toes of his right foot sawed off, and his foot and ankle badly crushed by getting entangled in a belt, in Hinkley & Egery's new mill on the Hampden road, two or three days since

THE MAIL ROBBER The Machias Union says "An unknown 'small sized, smooth shaved man, supposed to be about 30 years old,' and who has been known to register his name at a hotel as George Mortimer, was arrested a Wesley, May 28, for having robbed the mail on the Air Line route the night previous About $7000 in checks &c., were found upon him He was suspected and arrested on the Burns de system, by passengers now out on the st Wesley, without the forms of law The case was a justifiable one, as circumstances plainly indicate the culprit

☞ Enrolling officers under the U S Conscription Law, have been appointed in this district, and throughout the State, and have commenced the duties assigned them The persons enrolled are to be divided into two classes—the first embracing those between twenty and thirty five years of age, and all unmarried persons liable to military duty between thirty five and forty five; and the second, all other persons liable to military duty, but who are not to be called into service until those of the first class shall have been called

All persons enrolled are to be subject for two years subsequent, to be called into military service, for a period not exceeding three years, and are to be on the same footing as the volunteers are for three years, including advance pay and bounty as now provided by law

The Provost Marshal of each district has the rank, pay and emoluments of a Captain of cavalry, but is to receive commutation for transportation or for fuel and quarters, but is to be allowed the expenses of postage, stationery and clerk hire authorized by the Provost Marshal General. His duty is to arrest deserters, detect and seize spies, and obey the orders and regulations of the Provost Marshal General, and those prescribed by law, concerning the enrollment and draft.

AN IMPROVED DRILLING MACHINE Mr J. S. French, a brother-in-law of J. H. Kimball, Esq., of this city, who has been in California for some years, and is now on a visit home, has invented a machine by which the common hand drill is worked by one man with three or four times the rapidity and execution obtained by the old sledge striking operation We saw one of his machines (manufactured by Messrs. Hinkley and Egery), at work yesterday By turning a balance-wheel of two feet diameter, which is done with much ease, the drill is struck by a twenty-five pound sledge, from sixty to ninety times a minute, and penetrates the hardest granite as fast as four men will do it by the ordinary process The machine is intended for quarry-mining operations, where horizontal tunnels are to be carried into the bowels of the gold bearing hills—but it can easily be arranged so as to drill in all directions It appears to be an important labor-saving invention

TESTIMONIAL TO GENERAL HENRY The following extract of the official report of Brigadier General Joseph B Carr, who assumed command of General Berry's Division after his death, has been sent us for publication by Assistant Adjutant General, Major Charles Hamlin

I regret with pain I close this report with the record of the death of Major General HIRAM G BERRY, late commander of this Division On Sunday, the 3d inst, at 7 A M, he fell mortally wounded At 7 26 A M, he died, peacefully and tranquilly I cannot describe the vacancy his absence creates not only in the hearts of his command, but in the army, with whom he has served in so distinguished a manner He had become endeared to all under and around him, and many at one time, through his honest kindness, amiability and steady friendship Courage and talent marked him as a commander and leader, crowned with sound judgment saturated by burning patriotism, impelled by a fiery ardor and his military career has been a grand success

☞ The Portland Press is apparently reduced to one half its former size—that is, so far as we have recently seen

☞ It is stated that George B Moore, Esq formerly of the Belfast Journal, and recently on the Portland Argus, is to assume the editorial management of the Portland Advertiser It is quite fitting that the Advertiser should have an open, avowed and long-known democrat for an editor It will no longer sail under false colors, nor we hope, be any more quoted as a Republican or 'independent' journal Mr Moore is a writer of ability, experience and taste

☞ High blood, like the finest wine, may be kept so long that it entirely loses its flavor—hence the last man of an old family may be like the ex bottle of a famous vintage—a thing to be talked of.

☞ Charles II, on remarking to Milton that his loss of sight was a judgment from heaven, was immediately silenced by the poet's retort of "How was it when your father lost his head?"

☞ Josiah Pierce, Jr, has recently returned to Portland from Russia, as we learn from the Press

☞ There were extensive fires in the woods in the upper part of Oxford county last week

☞ The Calais Advertiser publishes a letter from a member of the 22d Maine regiment, dated Newton, La, April 26th, from which it appears that the health of the regiment is good

☞ Five large snow drifts might be seen by the wayside between Farmington and Phillips last week

The medical bureau of the War Department has proposed for the instruction of examining Surgeons, a complete list of physical defects which exempt men from the draft This list includes myopia, otorrhea ptosis hypertrophy of the tongue, hydrocele, &c Perhaps the "medical bureau" will condescend to let the common people know what these terrible sounding diseases are If we've got 'em we want to know it

☞ Gold has crept up again to 147 and 148

☞ All the fortifications in Boston harbor are to be put in immediate telegraphic communication with the city

☞ About ten million feet of lumber belonging to S R Bearce & Co., and to James Wood & Co., are now afloat on the river between Lewiston and Dixfield, says the Journal

☞ The Portland Press says that "Company A, of the State Guards" is about being organized in that city Company A was organized in this city some two months ago Our Portland friends are slightly cool in claiming the head of the set

☞ The Press says Governor Coburn is improving slowly

☞ A general court martial, for the trial of deserters in this State, is held this week, at Augusta, as before stated The Board is composed of the following officers Capt John W Freese, 7th Regiment, President; Lieut. Mason Walker, 5th Regiment, Lieut Samuel Barclay, 9th Regiment, Lieut. W H Larrabee, 7th Regiment, Lt George B Weymouth, 5th Regiment and Lieut. Alvan B Hall, 7th Regiment. Lieut F E Shaw of First Heavy Artillery, is Judge Advocate.—The court will probably be in session some weeks

Among those against which charges have been preferred (as we learn from the Portland Courier) are the following:—George B Hutchinson of Gardiner, 3d Regiment, deserted five times, Jesse Meader, 3d Regiment, Horace Littlefield, Biddeford, 5th Battery, Carl Berwick, who not only deserted but is also charged with drawing a revolver on the officer who arrested him

☞ Tar is now being manufactured in Michigan by a party of Norwegians.

☞ The largest casting ever made in England, an anvil weighing one hundred tons, was recently "issued" from a Sheffield foundry

☞ There are in the Potomac army 21,000 mules and 22,400 horses, 420 tons of hay and 300 tons of grain are fed per diem

☞ One hundred and fifty men belonging to the 23d New York volunteers have petitioned the War Department to be united with the 7th Maine for the remainder of the war

☞ Although the enrollment is now in progress it will not be necessary for any one to take measures to establish his claim to exemption until he receives a printed notice that he is drafted, when he has ten days before he is required to appear at the office of the Board of Enrollment, where all cases of bodily infirmity &c, will be duly considered

☞ Five judges and inspectors of election have been sentenced in Philadelphia to pay a fine of two hundred dollars each, and to be imprisoned six months for preparing and signing a fraudulent election certificate, declaring a man named Leech elected to the Common Council

☞ A lady in Fall River, who was engaged to be married, dismissed her lover because he intimated that he expected to have to go to Canada to avoid the draft

BOLD OPERATION The Belfast Age says that a thief entered the barn of Mr Eben Wentworth of Waldo, last week, and stole therefrom a valuable horse which he harnessed to the wagon of the owner and made off Nothing yet heard from him

DROWNED IN BELFAST BAY We learn from the Belfast Age that on Wednesday last week, a sail boat containing Mr James Douglass his wife and two other women was upset near Brigadier's island and Douglass was drowned A few of wind struck the boat as just at that moment one of the women stumbled upon the leeward side, when it went over, precipitating all on board into the water The women clung to hold of Douglass and in the rush and confusion he was drawn under and drowned A man who lives upon the Island put off with a boat and succeeded in rescuing the women who were nearly exhausted

NEW VARIETIES OF COTTON The United States Consul at Panama has lately sent to the State Department two specimens of cotton taken from cotton trees at Sierra Pisa one variety being white and the other colored but what color is not stated The trees are seven inches in diameter, the top branches of which are about fifteen feet from the ground and spread about twenty feet each way Cotton is that part of Pinus is of five or six different colors The trees are so full of cotton balls that the cotton scarcely be seen

A deserter from Charleston who was on the rebel ram Cairora, reports that the rebels attempted to explode a huge torpedo in the main ship channel at Charleston when the frigate Ironsides was over it, but it failed to explode

Coughs, Colds Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough Influenza, and the numerous as well as dangerous diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs prevail, in our changeable climate, at all seasons of the year few are fortunate enough to escape their baneful influence. How important then to have at hand a certain antidote to all these complaints—Experience proves that this exists in Wistar's Balsam to an extent not found in any other remedy however severe the suffering, the application of this soothing, healing and wonderful Balsam at once vanquishes the disease and restores the sufferer to wonted health

From a Highly Respectable Apothecary in Bangor.

BANGOR, Oct 4, 1860

Messrs I W Fox & Co—Please send me a few dozen of WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY The demand for this excellent preparation for diseases of the Throat and Lungs, renders it necessary that I should purchase a considerable quantity of it. It has an enviable reputation which it has acquired upon its own merits alone. My customers recommend their sentiments of confidence in the medicine and I consider it without a superior in the best of similar specifics. The fact of its having been before the public so long, and the demand still continuing, is proof positive of its appreciation by the afflicted portion of mankind. Respectfully yours

THE IMMIGRATION OF PEASANTS FROM EUROPE. The great and increasing emigration from Europe to this country is somewhat surprising, in view of our domestic difficulties and of the civil war now raging—but more especially in view of that persistent misrepresentations of the English secession press, which tries to make their people believe that the Great Republic is rent in twain, never to be re-united, and that the experiment of civil liberty for the masses is a failure. The explanation, however, is that the masses in England, Ireland and Germany do not believe the story. Their own information, from friends and acquaintances in America, leads them to have full faith in the ultimate triumph of free principles, and they are coming over not only to reap the benefit of the increasing demand and higher prices for labor, but to aid in the struggle to maintain a government of equal rights.

In noting the fact that over 1,000 emigrants arrived at New York in one day last week, the Providence Journal says that for many weeks the stream of emigration has been pouring the stalwart sons of the Old World upon our shores, as it did ten years ago English, Irish, Germans, Scotch, Norwegians are hurrying to this land in search of a home and of the wealth which is here placed within the reach of industrious and honest toil. The aristocrats of Europe are talking of the decadence and the formidable doom of this republic. They are pointing to what they call the ruins of our nation, and warning the people to read in our fate the terrible evils of democracy. But the people do not seem to take the warning. They are so perverse as to turn their backs upon the Old World with all its vaunted blessings, and to start with all that they have for this country, even while it is distracted with civil war. America with all its present misfortunes and trials is more attractive to them than Europe with its general peace.—The Irish papers announce that the movement about to take place from Ireland is wonderful. Seven steamers are to leave Cork each forming it for some months to come. The Tuam Herald says that the exodus from Mayo and Galway is increasing every week. A Dundalk paper says the emigrants are rushing out of the country as if to avoid some terrible disaster

POLITICS. The New York Peace Convention composed of those who are "in favor of peace and opposed to the war and its continuance," met in Cooper Institute yesterday. The Journal of Commerce repudiates it as a Democratic Convention. Other Democratic papers seem to be puzzled in regard to its endorsement. It is to be hoped that it will just say what it means, so that the country may know whether its callers are knavish or merely foolish.

The democrats of Illinois will meet in mass convention at Springfield on the 17th inst.

Double delegations will appear in the Ohio Democratic convention, which indicates opposition to the nomination of Vallandigham.

According to an official report made to Rear Admiral Davis, the line of coast guarded by our blockading fleet is three thousand five hundred forty-nine miles long without counting the indentations of the harbors and ports. There are one hundred and eighty-nine openings in this coast, either rivers, bays, harbors, inlets, sounds or passes.

GENERAL BURNSIDE'S DESTINATION. A letter from Cincinnati says that General Burnside is to take the field with the Ninth Army Corps and other troops, and pierce through Kentucky to East Tennessee

SOUTHERN ITEMS. The Charleston Courier says that "General Jackson' had a strong personal sentiment that he would be killed before the war was brought to a close, and that the event would take place in the last or one of the last battles fought."

It has an editorial on Vallandigham, in which it speaks of him as "the gifted statesman," the "victim of a mob," and "the subject of a flagrant piece of tyranny;" alluding to the President as a "vulgar, ignorant, and wicked creature," backed up by thousands of armed men, and thousands of servile beings in the vile character of spies."

It says some speculations nearer home than Mississippi have been taken in by holding large quantities of four at $100 per barrel.

The following paragraph may be regarded as spicy:

While considering the proper mode and rate of compensation to be made to owners of servants that have been deported by the Yankees, our legislators should discriminate against masters who have run away from their servants. There have been many such cases in proportion to the number of servants who have voluntarily left their masters.

REBEL DESTRUCTION AND CORRUPTION. The Atlanta (Ga.) Intelligencer of May 15, publishes a striking letter from a private in the rebel army. The writer, after inveighing against the mercenary developments which he had witnessed in the army, thus speaks of his experience on returning home to Georgia:

"I met men, young men, in the full bloom and vigor of life, whom I had formerly known as loud-mouthed patriots and red hot secessionists. These had either bought substitutes and were engaged in speculation and extortion, or they had availed themselves of snug berths in the Quartermaster's or Commissary's Departments, thus cowardly skulking from the toil and the field. No wonder there are bread riots in all our principal cities. No wonder that starvation stares us in the face. No wonder there are letters written by mothers and wives at home to soldiers in camp, that would melt the heart of any but the soulless extortioner. No wonder that the poor soldier who, receives but the pittance of eleven dollars a month, after reading the letter from his suffering wife, should exclaim in the anguish of his spirit: 'What have I gained by exchanging the position of one Confederacy for the extortions of another? And why should I suffer and fight and die to defend the rights and property of men who are not only skulking at home to evade these dangers, but also fleecing me and mine of our hard-earned pittance, to swell their already bloated coffers?'

ALLEGED SWINDLING OPERATION. The New York Express gives the annexed particulars, of an alleged swindling transaction referred to in our dispatches:

The firm of John Ray & Co., provision packers and shippers, recently purchased bacon and provisions to the amount of about $70,000 from different merchants on Change. The goods were shipped to Europe, the bills of exchange drawn and sold, and Mr Lesmer, one of the firm, suddenly disappeared, taking with him the proceeds of the sale of the exchange, amounting, it is to pay for the goods bought. Detectives were sent in all directions, but the whereabouts of Mr. Lesmer is a complete mystery. Mr. John has been arrested, but denies all participation in the affair. A brother of Lesmer it is stated, will withdraw from the firm on the first of May, taking $40,000 as his portion of the stock. Lesmer married a sister of Ray's short time since, without the knowledge or consent of Ray. The affair has created a great deal of talk among the sufferers, and the whole thing is regarded as one of the most remarkable frauds that has been perpetrated for some time past.

INHUMANITY. The Nashville Union thus states a case for the consideration of the "conservatives?"

"We shudder at the inhumanity of certain barbe ous institutions, which leave feeble infants to perish by exposure. But how much less inhuman would it be for us to tamely surrender our country to the fury of rebellion and abandon our helpless posterity, to the slavery worse than death?"

The same paper also says—

"Some men talk as if they supposed that peace, one of the greatest of temporal blessings, and one of the promised joys of heaven could be had by mere breath in. 'Stop the war and let us have peace; say certain politicians to the Union army. Such counsels will never bring us peace, for the same diabolical spirit, which began the rebellion, would phase our receding army across the Ohio, be conquest, rapine and subjugation."

While loyal papers in the slave States of Tennessee talk thus fearlessly, loyally and manfully, we have whining copperhead journals at the North—even in the State of Maine—in full sympathy with the rebels.—Hallowell Gazette

REINFORCEMENTS FOR GEN. GRANT. The Chicago Tribune says, upon the most direct and positive authority, that General Banks has been ordered to co-operate with General Grant in the reduction of Vicksburg; that the attack on Charleston, at least by land, has been temporarily abandoned, and that Hunter's men, or a large portion of them, arrived at New Orleans—probably to secure the quiet of Louisiana—many days ago. It also assumes as know Gen. Grant well enough to believe that, if needed, every available man in his department, save and except only enough to hold Memphis, will be called to his aid, and if they are not enough, Missouri and Kentucky ought to be able to furnish, on brief notice, all that he may look

It is interesting to consider the various meanings persons attach to the same word. Thus, when Brown calls a man 'good,' he means that he is virtuous. When Jones applies the same adject ve to one of his neighbors, he means that he is solvent. When Brown calls a man 'a worthless fellow,' he means that he is a man of no character, or a very bad one. When Jones calls a man 'worthless,' he means that he is worthless o a certain amount of money. The other day Jones spoke of a man 'of no account.' He meant simply that he was a man of no bank account!

A Washington letter to the Evening Post says that the secessionists of that city assert that Lee is on his way to invade Maryland and Pennsylvania, although military men consider his movements a feint to cover the departure of troops for the Southwest, or an attack on Suffolk. General Grant, it is now expected, will have a long contest before Vicksburg. It would not be surprising if before it is ended nearly all the troops on each side in the South and West were to be engaged in battle. The government receives no official dispatches from Vicksburg, and has heard from Grant directly but once or twice. General Halleck is said to be confident that Grant can be and will be reinforced as rapidly as the rebels can reinforce Pemberton and Johnston.

NOVA SCOTIA ELECTIONS. The result of the elections on Thursday last has been the total defeat of the Government, and the Conservative party will now be no strong that everything must bend to their wishes. The liberals have not elected a single man who is capable of leading a party. Mr Howe has been defeated, which is a subject of regret, as the Intercolonial Railway has lost in him an able advocate. Out of fifty-five members, the Conservatives have returned forty-two.—St John Courier

BANGOR BREWERY,

No. 103 Broad Street.

THE undersigned has the pleasure of informing the citizens of Bangor and vicinity that he has at a very large outlay, established a Brewery for the manufacture of the best brands of Ale. My head brewer, Mr. Williamson, has no superior in the country, in skill and experience, acquired by over fifteen years service in the largest Breweries of London, New York and Boston.

The water used is from the famous Taylor spring and my malt and hops are of the best quality, thus commanding the fullest flavor and the finest purity. Believing the public will appreciate this home enterprise, I shall spare no pains to furnish an article which shall meet their entire approbation.

I shall also manufacture a desirable article of light Ale, specially for family use. My intention is to supply the trade, but for the present I shall accommodate the public in such quantities as may be desired.

My Ale is now on draft at the principal hotels and retail shops in this city.

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

Ayer's SARSAPARILLA,

FOR THE CURE OF SCROFULOUS DISEASES.

From Mr. Ashley Sykes, a well-known merchant of Stafford, Maine.

"I have sold large quantities of your SARSAPARILLA, and have never yet met with a case of Scrofula that it did not relieve, if not entirely cure. I have also sold large quantities of your PILLS, and they have given perfect satisfaction to those who took them. I have no hesitation in saying that they are the best Pills for family use that are known to the people here, and I believe there is no medicine like it before in our community."

Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Pustules, Ulcers, Boils, and all Diseases of the Skin.

From Rev. Robt. Stratton, Bristol, England.

"I only do my duty, to you and the public, when I add my testimony to that you publish of the medicinal virtues of your SARSAPARILLA. My daughter, aged ten, had an afflicting humor in her ears, eyes, and hair for years, which we were unable to cure, until we tried your SARSAPARILLA. She has been well for some months."

From Mrs. Jane E. Rice, a well-known and much-esteemed lady of Dennisville, Cape May Co., N. J.

"My daughter has suffered for a year past with a scrofulous drop sy, which was very troublesome. Nothing afforded any relief until we tried your SARSAPARILLA, which soon completely cured her."

From Charles P. Gage, Esq., of the widely known Gage, Murray & Co., manufacturers of assorted papers in Nashua, N. H.

"I had for several years a very troublesome humor in my face, which grew constantly worse until it disfigured my features and became an intolerable affliction. I tried almost every thing a man could of both advice and medicine, but without any relief whatever, until I took your SARSAPARILLA. It immediately made my face worse, as you told me it might for a time, but in a few weeks the new skin began to form under the blotches, and continued until my face is as smooth as any body's, and I am without any symptoms of the disease that I know of. I enjoy perfect health, and without a doubt owe it to your SARSAPARILLA."

Erysipelas—General Debility—Purify the Blood.

From Dr. Robt. Austin, Houston St., New York.

"Your Sarsaparilla will fail to remove Eruptions and Scrofulous sores by the persevering use of your SARSAPARILLA, and I have just now cured a patient of Malignant Erysipelas with it. No alterative we possess equals the SARSAPARILLA you have supplied to the profession as well as to the people."

From J. E. Johnston, Esq., Wabasha, Ohio.

"For twelve years, I had the yellow Erysipelas on my right arm, during which time I tried all the celebrated physicians I could reach, and took hundreds of dollars worth of medicines. The ulcers were so bad that the cords became visible, and the doctors decided that my arm must be amputated. I began taking your SARSAPARILLA. Took two bottles, and some of your PILLS. Together they have cured me. I am now as well and sound as any body. Being a public place, my case is known to every body in this community, and excites the wonder of all."

From Hon. Henry Moore, M. P. P., of Newcastle, C. W., a leading member of the Canadian Parliament.

"I have used your SARSAPARILLA in my family, for general debility, and for purifying the blood, with very beneficial results, and feel confidence in recommending it to the afflicted."

St Anthony's Fire, Rose, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Sore Eyes.

From Hon. Hervey Stokley, Esq., the able editor, of the Doylestown Democrat, Pennsylvania.

"One only child, about three years of age, was afflicted by pimply eruptions, forehead, cheeks, and other parts of the face. They rapidly spread until the little face was one solid scab, and the child's features were almost lost. A skilful physician applied the usual remedies for such cases, without any appreciable effect. After fifteen days we gave up in despair, and had the child photographed, that we might have a likeness of every thing dear we had any hope would die. Before we got the picture, we had begun using your SARSAPARILLA, and, before the child was dressed for the picture, the sores began to heal, which we had given up as incurable. The child's relations, which had come to see it, could be scarcely persuaded that it was the same child. In a few weeks it was healthy and fair as any child in the neighborhood, and presented a beautiful appearance. Its parents were delighted, and we thought that the"

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease.

From Dr. Harvey Stout, of St. Louis, Missouri.

"I find your SARSAPARILLA a more effectual remedy for the secondary symptoms of Syphilis than any other we possess. I have used it and shall continue to do so, being confident that it is the best antidote to the effects of mercury that is known."

From J. J. Franks, M. D., an eminent physician of Fairmount, Mass., who is a prominent member of the Legislature of Massachusetts.

"My dear Sir: I have found your SARSAPARILLA to be an excellent remedy for Syphilis in all of the primary and secondary type, and effected in some cases that were too obstinate to yield to other remedies. I do not know what we can employ with more certainty of success, where a powerful alterative is required."

Hon. Chas. A. Tuttle, of New Brunswick, N. B.

"I had suffered for the last few years, caused by the abuse of mercury, from inherited disease, which grew more and more aggravated for years, in spite of every effort to arrest it that could be applied, until the continued use of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA reduced it to such a degree that could be found more inactive to and overcome this, and it took several doses before I was rid of it."

Leucorrhœa, Whites, Female Weakness, and generally produced by internal Scrofulous disease, or taints of the blood, will be found to yield to the mild influence of this SARSAPARILLA. Some cases require, however, the aid of the Sarsaparilla, the skilful physician must be guided.

From the well-known and widely celebrated Dr. Jacob Jarrett, of Cincinnati.

"I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent alterative in diseases of females. Many cases of Leucorrhœa, Internal Ulceration, and Falling, arising from the scrofulous diathesis have come under my observation, and few of the most obstinate of them can properly be called to the notice of the faculty, resisting to attain the qualities in other forms, yields

"My daughter and myself have been cured of a very debilitating Leucorrhœa by using it, and by the help of your SARSAPARILLA."

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Neuralgia, which arise from the scrofula in the system, are rapidly cured by this EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS

possess over all my advantages over the other purgatives in the markets and their superior activity is universally known, that we need not do more than to assure the public that quality is in all, and equal to the best we ever have been, and that they may be depended on to do all that they have ever done.

POOR RICHARD'S EYE AND EAR WATER.

This is the Best Preparation in the World!

READER, are you aware that every time you think, speak or act, you draw on your eyes for strength to do so? Now you ask do not to these, and if they have off spirited your body and shut it up in the prison of disease. Remember they must assuredly will if you do not satisfy their claim (which is a small one) for all the services they render to you continually. They are crying to you for help every blood vessel is a voice. Hear their cry, and save yourself by saving them. Give them a drink of POOR RICHARD'S EYE WATER, Morning and Night. This is all they ask and they will positively keep your body out of the prison house of disease. They do not want to lose time in explanations. Try them and prove them. Of faithful perseverance, blindness can be cured and prevented.—Bathe both eyes and ears.

A Remarkable Cure in Bangor.

I, W. H. PARKHARD, do certify that my wife Esther S. has had Weak Eyes from childhood, caused by hemorrhage. One year since a lump appeared on the ball of her eye. It increased to the size of a large bean. Becoming somewhat alarmed about the progress it was making I took my wife to Dr. A. to be known, as the Exchange, but told me the only remedy was to remove it, and I rather strengthen her eyes. Mrs. S. applied her family as directed, and in the evening, and at nine o'clock the lump was gone. We could see no more of it. My wife can now see people walking on the other side of the street, which she could never do before. She has always had headache when riding in a carriage. Yesterday, when riding in a carriage, she had no return of headache. Her own eyes were treated two or three times by Mrs. Brown. I find them much strengthened. W. H. PARKHARD.

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, April 28, 1863

General Orders No. 105

The organization of an Invalid Corps is hereby authorized.

The Corps shall consist of companies and parts of companies now in the field (whether detailed, present or temporarily absent) who, from wounds received in action or disease contracted in the line of duty, are unfit for field service, but are still valuable as effective garrison duty, or such other light duty as may be required of an Invalid corps.

Regimental Commanders shall at once make out, from information received from their Medical and Company Officers, and from their own knowledge, rolls (according to the Form furnished) of the names of all the officers and enlisted men under their commands who fulfill the following conditions, viz:

1. That they are unfit for active field service on account of wounds or disease contracted in the line of duty, this fact being certified by a Medical Officer of the service, after personal examination.

2. That they are fit for garrison duty, this fact being likewise certified by the Medical Officer as above, after personal examination.

3. That they are, in the opinion of their Commanding Officers, meritorious and deserving.

These rolls shall be certified by the Examining Surgeon and Regimental Commander and transmitted, through the regular channels of military correspondence, to the Provost Marshal General of the United States.

The Regimental Commander shall enter in the column of remarks, opposite each officer's name on the roll, a statement as to the general character of the officer for intelligence, industry, zeal, attention to duty, and an intermediate Commanders shall endorse thereon such facts as they may possess in the case, or if they have none they shall state how far they are willing to endorse the opinion of the principal officers making the recommendation. Such rolls shall be forwarded from time to time, whatever the number of men fulfilling the conditions enumerated or the exigencies of the service may render it expedient.

Second. By taking those officers and enlisted men still in service and upon the rolls, but who are absent from duty in Hospitals or Convalescent Camps, or are otherwise under the control of Medical Officers. In these cases the Surgeon in charge or attendance shall prepare rolls according to Form, entering the names of officers and men from the same Regiment on a roll by themselves, and send them with the certificate of the Surgeon duly signed by the proper Regimental or Brigade Commander, to the Provost Marshal General, subject to the same conditions and requirements. In any case, the Regimental Commander shall think an officer unfit, in point of character, to continue in the service of the Invalid Corps, though disabled and certified by the Surgeon, he will make his objection in the column of remarks and note the reasons before signing the certificate. If an officer or enlisted man will do in the service, but wants and has not the means of a Medical Officer in charge of a hospital of Convalescent Camp, desires to enter the Corps, he will take the course prescribed below for those who have been honorably discharged the service.

Third. By accepting those officers and enlisted men who have been honorably discharged on account of wounds or disease contracted in the line of duty, and who desire to re-enter the service. In the case of an officer, application for appointment must be made to the Provost Marshal General of the United States through the officer designated as acting Assistant Provost Marshal General of the State. No application of this kind will be considered unless the following conditions are completely fulfilled:

1. That the applicant produces the certificate of the surgeon of the General Hospital for the District in which he resides, that he is unfit for active field duty, on account of wounds or disease, and is not unable to drill, but is fit for garrison duty.

2. That he shall pass examination before a Board, to be appointed by the Provost Marshal General, of which the senior officer shall not be junior in rank to the officer to be examined, and submit the examination with his application for appointment.

3. That he be not being Assistant Provost Marshal General for the State the application may be forwarded through the adjutant General of the State, who is desired to endorse thereon such facts in the military history of the applicant as he may know, or as are adduced by his records, and forward the same to the Provost Marshal General of the United States. Enlisted men, honorably discharged on account of disability, on filing in the office of the Corps, will present themselves to the Board of Examination by the Surgeon in charge of the hospital in the District in which they reside, for examination by the Surgeon, who shall call the attention of the Board and report the result to the Board of Examination.

The Board shall then consider each case, and the applicant is found to submit the conditions specified under, the Board shall give him a certificate to that effect, viz:

1. That he is unfit for service in the field.

2. That he is fit for garrison duty.

3. That he is unblemished and deserving.

4. That he was honorably discharged from the service.

The Provost Marshal for the District shall then send the applicant, with the certificate of the Board, to the acting Assistant Provost Marshal General of the State, who shall produce such applicant before and muster into the service of the Company to which he belongs, or the nearest Regiment of the State, may cause, and if satisfied that it is a case within the class and that the man selected is suited in accordance with such special rules as the Provost Marshal General may detail him.

Medical Inspectors, Surgeons in charge of Hospitals, Military Commanders, and all officers having authority to discharge, under existing laws and regulations, are forbidden to grant discharges to any men under their control who may be fit for service in the Invalid Corps.

The Provost Marshal General is charged with the execution of this order, and the troops organized under it will be under the control of the Bureau

By order of the Secretary of War.
